

International Visegrad Fund project final meeting

On May 16-17, 2023, the final meeting of the project “Strengthening soft skills as employment key tool: Transferring V4 experience” will be held at the Armenian National Agrarian University (ANAU) in Yerevan, Armenia. The main objective of the meeting will be the ceremonial opening of the Soft Skills Development Center, where in the next coming period students and agricultural specialists will acquire the necessary competencies in the field of soft skills during trainings organized by ANAU. The Center is also the main result of the project.

The project Strengthening soft skills as employment key tool: Transferring V4 experience implementation is supported by the International Visegrad Fund. Armenian National Agrarian University (ANAU) is the project applicant and coordinator. The partners of the project are the Slovak University of Agriculture in Nitra, the Hungarian University of Agriculture and Life Sciences and the University of South Bohemia in České Budějovice. The project has started on January 1, 2022, and its completion is scheduled for June 30, 2023.

More information on: <https://anau.am/en/visegrad/>.